

Map 5.2 Riparian Vegetation Condition

- Degraded
- Recovering
- Mature / potentially mature

Degraded riparian zones considered areas with no vegetative cover or small mixed, recovering are areas of deciduous and medium sized mixed and coniferous stands, mature or potentially mature are areas with large or very large mixed or coniferous stands.

0 2 4 miles

Map scale = 1:350,000

Sources:
Vegetation information derived from CLAMS, 1996. Vegetation was summarized for areas within 250 feet of 2nd order and greater streams. Buffer was used to analyze vegetation and should not necessarily be considered a recommended buffer width.

